- 1.7 Bankruptcy cause : According to the managers the bad economic conditions and the consequent decline in sales are the main causes of the bankruptcy. The shareholders were unable to meet this request (in time). According to the managers the means for this capital injection were available but failed to provide the possibility to also meet the sudden demand from a creditor for a bank guarantee. When the bank cancelled the credit agreement, the managers had no other possibility than to file a petition for bankruptcy of Oad Groep B.V. and its subsidiaries. Other parties involved in the bankruptcy mention other causes for the bankruptcy. After the investigations to be carried out by the trustees an analysis will be made of the causes of the bankruptcy.

- Activities in the period under review : An extensive investigation was carried out into the legal effectiveness of the securities of the Rabobank. Because of the size of the (credit) facility and the diversity of securities requested, the credit facility and securities are based on a voluminous file. Besides there has been extensive correspondence between the trustees and the Rabobank.

- 6.1 Commercial operation/securities : Not applicable
- 6.2 Financial recording : Not applicable
- Activities in the period under review : Correspondence/discussions with interested parties and Oad Bus B.V. about the sale of the customer portfolio for group flights.
- 7. Lawfulness
- 7.1 Accounting : Art 2:10 Civil Code. The management is obliged to keep the accounts showing the rights and obligations of the legal entity at any time. Whether this obligation was met will be investigated by the trustees.

During the period under review an internationally operating office with forensic accountants has been order to carry out a “quick scan” of the way in which the accounting records were kept. Before this “quick scan” can be carried out the physical and digital records have to be secured.

Physical records

At different places in the premises in Holten a considerable amount of records were found, comprising among other things financial records, management information, annual accounts, minutes but also detailed (project) records of certain departments of Oad c.s., like Group Travel, Sports & Incentives, Disney, etc.

Apart from that there is a large quantity of records stored in the premises in Holten (e.g. “Oad files” and management files). As the trustees cannot assess at this moment which files are or may be relevant in the winding-up it has been decided to keep most of the files and to ensure that the relevant records can be traced easily and fast. It has been established that there is a large quantity of material to be archived, which makes storage and indexing a complex task resulting in high costs. The trustees asked three parties to make a quotation for securing, indexing and storage of the records.

Finally, Vada Archieven B.V. in Nijverdal was given the order to carry out these activities. As regards the indexation the trustees will receive a list stating the file and location (file spine/file name). Photographs will be taken of the arrangement of the record as it was so as to be able to reconstruct the location of the records (which room/ where in the room/cabinet). In this way the trustees try to secure that relevant records can be traced back. Furthermore the trustees made arrangements with Vada Archieven B.V. about consulting the archived information either at Vada’s or by (digital/physical) forwarding the relevant documents.

Digital records

Furthermore the trustees are busy securing the digital records of Oad c.s. This is important for collecting receivables, invoicing work in progress (in as far as not done) and for regular examination of the records.

In order to map the ICT infrastructure a session was convened with 1) a representative of the trustees, 2) 3 former Oad ICT employees and 3) forensic accountants who will make a back-up of the digital records for the trustees. During those discussions it appeared that the ICT structure and infrastructure is rather extensive and complex which is among other things due to the fact that different systems (partly self-made, partly packages available on the market) were/are used and linked. Another aspect is that the server park is partly located in the premises in Holten and partly with an external party in Enschede.

As it is not clear so far which data are relevant for the winding-up, it has been decided to divide the process in stages. During stage 1 the data are only secured. In stage 2 essential business information, like e.g. the financial records, will be made accessible for consultation.

During the following stages relevant data can be disclosed and consulted in as far as may be necessary. Securing the data (and viewing the data during the next stage) will lead to high costs considering the complexity and size of the system and data. However, since a proper settlement of the bankruptcies is important such investment will be necessary.

7.2 Filing of the annual accounts (publication requirements)

: The Financial year of Oad runs from 1 November to 31 October. From the online trade register of the Chamber of Commerce it appears that the consolidated accounts for the Financial year 2010-2011 were filed by the OAD Groep Holding B.V. on the 6th of December 2012. That means the legal term was exceeded by 6 days. In administrative justice such exceeding is not considered mismanagement which is considered an important cause of the bankruptcy. The annual accounts of the financial year 2011-2012 had not been published at the time of the bankruptcy order. The trustees examine whether the legal publishing term for the annual accounts 2011-2012 has been exceeded and if so what would be the consequences.

7.3 Unqualified audit opinion

: As regards the annual accounts for the Financial year 2010-2011 an audit report was issued by an independent auditor. As regards the annual accounts for 2011-2012 no audit report had been issued by an independent auditor at the time of the bankruptcy order.

7.4 Compulsory payment on shares

: The trustees will investigate whether the paying up commitment has been fulfilled.

7.5 Mismanagement

The trustees will investigate whether the managers failed to properly fulfill their duties and if so, whether it may be assumed that this was an important cause of the bankruptcy (as referred to in article 2:248 Civil Code), or whether the managers may be considered responsible otherwise. The trustees will carry out the usual investigations within the framework of the bankruptcy. In view of the size of the company and the interests involved in the bankruptcy, the trustees will engage forensic accountants and external lawyers in their investigations. It is to be expected that the investigations will take quite some time.

As mentioned above to 7.1., an external office has been ordered to make a “quick scan” of the way in which the records were kept. At the same time an external firm of lawyers has been engaged to carry out an investigation into the cause of the bankruptcies.

7.6 Fraudulent acting in respect of creditors

The trustees will investigate whether there have been legal actions which may have damaged one or more creditors. If necessary, such legal actions will be nullified by an out of court statement. This aspect will be incorporated in the examination of the records.

Activities in the period under review

Correspondence, discussions and coordination archiving companies, former Oad ICT employees (for making an inventory), forensic accountants (for making a back-up).

8. Creditors

8.1 Claims against assets

There are various claims against assets, like that of the UWV, which has not been submitted as yet.

In the period after bankruptcy various payments were made into the accounts of the bankrupt companies. In each case the trustees assessed if the payment should be considered a so called “obvious error” as referred to in legal precedents. In such cases the amount should be returned without having to wait for the winding-up of the bankruptcy. In many cases however, the payments are not to be qualified as “obvious errors”, which means that there is no reason to immediately pay back the amount.

Furthermore it has appeared that after the date of the bankruptcy activities were still carried out by foreign tour guides and trainees who do not fall in the scope of the wage guarantee scheme. The aforementioned tour guides and trainees have claimed their wages and costs during the period after the date of the bankruptcy from the trustees.

- 8.2 Pref. tax receivable : A tax consultant, practicing in the office of one of the trustees, mr. G.W. Luesink, is busy establishing the fiscal position of the companies in consultation with the tax authorities. There is a dispute about the question as to whether one or more of the bankrupt companies enjoyed tax deductible training. Furthermore it should be examined if there is a claim for turnover tax abroad. Besides aspects regarding corporation tax still have to be examined.
- 8.3 Pref. claim UWV : The UWV has not yet submitted its claim.
- 8.4 Other pref. creditors : As far as known there are no other preferential creditors.
- 8.5 Number of ordinary creditors : So far there is no list of claims from creditors. The claims submitted in all OAD companies, over 10.000, are sorted and listed. Besides the claims are summarily checked if they are claims on a company in which a payment can be expected. The trustees expect they can give a preliminary review of all claims submitted and the respective amounts in the next report. The trustees consider it too early to make an interim list because, considering the fact that many claims still have to be assessed, this would give a wrong picture of the number and amount of the claims submitted. For activities connected with creditors, two employees have been engaged for a period of 6 months. However, it is already clear that the number of submitted claims is considerable. Furthermore a number of private persons have submitted a claim for loss resulting from injury.
- 8.6 Amount ordinary creditors : The list of creditors from the records of Oad Reizen B.V. shows an outstanding balance of approximately € 16,500,000.00. The creditors have been notified and requested to submit their claims. It is expected that the amount of the claims submitted will be also be in the same order of magnitude.
- 8.7 Will it be a closure : No
- 8.8 Simplified settlement : Probably not
- 8.9 Will there be a distribution to ordinary creditors : At this stage it is not yet known whether a distribution to ordinary creditors is possible.
- Based on the currently known information, the trustees come to the conclusion that a distribution to the ordinary creditors is not excluded.
- Activities during the period under review : Discussions and correspondence with the tax authorities. Correspondence and telephone discussions with creditors.

9. Other issues

- 9.1 Winding up the bankrupt's estate : The winding up of the OAD estates is expected to take some years.
- 9.2 Approach : Sale of assets, debt collection and performing the usual investigations in bankruptcy matters.
